

Managing Conversations (Meetings & Calls)

1. Warm-Up (10 min — real habits)

Ask:

- Do you usually speak a lot in meetings?
- Do you interrupt people or wait?
- What do you do if you don't understand something?

👉 Push:

- What's difficult about meetings in English?

2. Key Situations (set the frame)

Tell him:

In meetings, you need to:

1. interrupt politely
 2. clarify
 3. control the conversation

3. Core Language (simple + powerful)

A. Interrupting politely

- "Sorry to interrupt, but..."
- "Can I just add something?"
- "Can I jump in for a second?"

B. Clarifying

- “Could you clarify that?”
 - “What do you mean by...?”
 - “Just to confirm...”

C. Slowing things down

- “Let me think for a second.”
 - “Give me a moment.”

D. Controlling direction

- “Let’s focus on...”
 - “Let’s come back to that.”
 - “The main issue is...”

 Keep it practical — don’t over-explain.

4. Exercise Block 1 — Match situation to phrase (10–12 min)

Match:

1. You don’t understand → _____
 2. You want to interrupt → _____
 3. You want to refocus → _____
 4. You need time to think → _____

👉 He chooses from phrases above

5. Exercise Block 2 — Choose the best response (10–12 min)

1. Someone is talking too long:
 - Stop.
 - Sorry to interrupt, but can I add something?

2. You don't understand:
 - I don't understand.
 - Could you clarify that?

3. Meeting is off-topic:
 - This is not important.
 - Let's focus on the main issue.

👉 Ask: Why?

6. Exercise Block 3 — Rewrite (10–12 min)

Make these more natural:

1. I don't understand.
 2. Stop talking.
 3. That's not important.
 4. Wait.
 5. Explain again.

👉 Goal:
Turn into professional phrases

7. Controlled Practice (10–12 min)

You create mini situations:

👉 “I’m explaining something unclear.”

He must say:

- “Could you clarify that?”

👉 “I keep talking too long.”

He interrupts:

- “Sorry to interrupt, but...”

👉 “We go off-topic.”

He says:

- “Let’s focus on...”

8. Scenario Practice (20 min — THIS is the core)

Scenario 1: Meeting Chaos

You:

- talk too long

- change topics
- say unclear things

👉 He must:

- interrupt
 - clarify
 - refocus

Scenario 2: Fast Conversation

You speak quickly and unclearly.

👉 He must:

- slow you down
 - ask questions

Scenario 3: Decision Discussion

You disagree with him.

👉 He must:

- respond politely
- guide conversation
